Hello Everybody,

The next MRWF Luncheon is October 18th at Finz at Noon.

Just a reminder that October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. If at all possible, please wear something pink to this luncheon. It is important that we as women show solidarity in the fight for a cure. Thank You All.

Below, please find a special introductory note from our president, Diane McKechnie, as well as details about our speaker, Christal Stiles.

Hi Ladies,

I hope that you are all well and looking forward to our next Lunch, October the 18th. I know I am looking forward to seeing all of you. I am happy to report my husband Bill is getting better, little by little. Thank you so much for your cards, care and prayers.

This will be a special meeting. Our guest speaker is Crystal Stiles. Crystal is the Co-Executive Director of the Martin County Business Development Board. I am sure that you have read and heard about the Board and its mission of bringing business and jobs to Martin County. This is our opportunity to hear about their plans, for Martin County and ask whatever questions we may have. (Please read Crystal's Bio.)

Also ladies, our good friend and fellow member Angie Sherlock will have her fabulous Silver Jewelry (latest collection) with her. We can all shop till we drop! The Holidays will be here before we know it.

Please mark you calendar and bring a friend. There will be a prize for the person who brings the most guests. A little birdie told Pastor Mary brought three to the last meeting. She will also receive a prize.

See you October 18th. God Bless you and God Bless America. Remember to keep our troops in your prayers.

Diane McKechnie, President

PS: As concerned members of our community, we are all aware that many people in our community are struggling, to keep food on the table and to be able to feed their families. I am asking every member to please remember those in need by bringing a couple of cans or non-perishable goods to our meeting on October 18th and every monthly meeting.
Republican women not only ROCK they CARE!!
God Bless
Diane McKechnie

Crystal Stiles serves as Co-Executive Director for the Business Development Board of Martin County. Crystal's strengths lie in community development and outreach, strategic planning, marketing and public relations.
